Field Fencing.

A fence that always keeps its shape because its built that way—

Nothing but large size heavily galvanized wire made of best Bessemer steel used in its construction—same as all the so different styles made—turns all kinds of stock and leaves the stock unharmed while the fence stands strong and sturdy.

THIS hinge-joint makes an adjustable fence and prevents stay wires from bending—

THAT crimp makes as tight a fence in summer as in winter, and prevents stay wire from being displaced.

There's no fence that excels it; and few, if any, as good.

Manufactured by CONSOLIDATED STEEL WIRE CO., PITTSBURGH.

FOR SALE BY CHARLES E. DEAN.

Lee—Morris.

Mr. Whittaker Lee, who resides near Grove station, and Miss Betty, the only daughter of Mrs. Celest Morris, of this city, surprised their many friends here Thursday by going to Richmond and getting married. Mr. Lee procured his license Tuesday and succeeding in keeping his intentions a secret until the party took the train Thursday morning for Richmond.

Miss Morris was accompanied by her cousin, Miss Nora Lively. In Richmond the couple had some trouble in securing a minister to tie the knot, but a gentleman escorted them to the residence of Rev. J. B. Hutson who performed the ceremony.

After a trip to Washington and other places Mr. and Mrs. Lee will return to this county to live.

About one month ago my child, which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief, we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty-five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better, by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L. Boggs, Stumptown, Gilmer Co., W. Va. For sale by Leonard Henley.
